

The most effective exercises for activating gluteus medius and superior fibers of gluteus maximus with minimal contraction of the TFL. These were shown to be more effective than hip hikes, lunges, squats, and step ups.